EXECUTIVE CHEF

CHRISTOPHE CUSSAC

Chef Christophe Cussac, who has been at the head of two-starred establishments for more than 30 years, brilliantly supervises the restaurants of the Hotel Metropole Monte-Carlo.

The secret of Chef Christophe Cussac is a taste for authenticity. That of the man and the plate. Underneath the apparent simplicity of his dishes lies a great deal of technical skill, where we find his deep love of the French terroir, which he sublimates with Mediterranean touches.

He draws his inspiration from a spice, a cooking, an encounter or even music. It is the naturalness of the products that marks his style, as shown by the Chef's golden rule: 3 tastes per dish, to respect the balance of the plate. This is the Cussac style: go for the essential, without unnecessary ornaments.

For the Chef, cooking is a matter of feeling:

*"My cooking is above all a cooking that I love.
I make dishes that I would enjoy"*

His ambition is to go beyond the simple gastronomic experience to provoke an emotion, a moment of sharing enhanced by a discreet service, but always with a touch of proximity. As a true leader, he transmits to his teams a taste for determination, gourmandise and rigour, values that have marked his career.
